MELLON SHOWS FREAR MISREPRESENTED TREASURY ATTITUDE ON BONUS

"I can see no reason," said the Demo atic leader, "why a single American cratic leader, "why a single American soldier should remain on the Rhine." The American troops were "invited" by the Allies to remain in Germany, Mr. Underwood declared, and the American claim for their maintenance was a "just and proper one." "In right, justice and fair play," said Mr. Underwood, "the American Government is entitled to stand on the same basis and receive from Germany, its preportionate pay for the iermany its proportionate pay for the oldlers.
